Donations for Ghana Outreach Orphanage

Many of you will remember Pastor Anthony Hammond of Accra, Ghana. Pastor Anthony visited with us one Sunday about two years ago. The thin black, hand-sewn banner that hangs on the wall of the fellowship hall was a gift from him and his churches during that visit.

Throughout the month of January I will be collecting monetary donations to wire to Pastor Anthony and the Ghana Outreach Orphanage, to assist in getting clothes and other supplies for the children for the new year. This is a private project of my own. There will be no love offering collected during worship nor are any church funds involved.

Anyone wishing to make a donation over the next few weeks can do so by putting your donation in a plain envelope, writing ORPHANAGE on it, and giving it to me (you may also leave your envelopes on my desk in the office if I'm not around). Funds will be sent to Pastor Anthony at the end of January. This is a completely voluntary offering and you may participate as you desire. Thank you in advance for your generosity to the orphans of Ghana!

There are moments in life that need to be heralded with joy. Jesus is so good to us. There are a million reasons to celebrate this New Year—~ all of the obstacles we have overcome in the last year. The joy and healing that Jesus has brought about in our hearts. His faithfulness and bountiful provision. The cherished relationships He has brought into our lives. The goodness of being alive. The prospect of a new, untarnished year in front of us. The promise that Jesus will be with us in every circumstance, no matter what. So many reasons to bring in the New Year with a shout of praise!
